

EXILED VOICES FOR JUSTICE

A Series of Documentary Screenings and Panel Discussions

BURMA VJ

REPORTING FROM A CLOSED COUNTRY

Using smuggled footage, this critically-acclaimed documentary tells the story of the 2007 protests in Burma by thousands of Burmese monks. Short-listed for an Oscar.

When?

11 am-3 pm, Sunday,
February 7, 2010

Where?

Pigott Auditorium,
Seattle University

Who?

Panelists will include U Pyinya Zawta, Director in Exile of the All Burma Monks' Alliance, and leader of the 2007 Saffron Revolution

Free admittance. First come, first served.

Other Films in the Series

Sudan: "God Grew Tired of Us," Sunday February 14

Congo: "Lumo," Sunday, May 2

Central America: "Which Way Home," TBD

Details: www.exiledvoicesforjustice.org

Sponsored by Refugee and Immigrant Children's Program, Lutheran Community Services Northwest, Center for Global Justice, Seattle University School of Law, Coalition for Refugees from Burma, Seattle University Academic Salons. Endorsed by Global Washington and Seeds of Compassion.